HOWARD HANGED.

Death Sentence Imposed on One of Goebel's Murderers.

A Delay of One Day in Making up The Verdict—Two Democrats Hung the Jury.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 26.—“We, the jury, find the defendant guilty as charged in the indictment, and fix the penalty at death.” So said the jury in the case of James Howard, charged with the murder of William Goebel.

Foreman Crutcher said that on the first ballot a unanimous verdict of guilty as charged was the result. As to the penalty ten members of the jury voted the death sentence and two for life imprisonment.

The two men who hung the jury from 2:37 o'clock yesterday afternoon until this morning at 9 o'clock. They then came in and agreed to the death penalty on the first ballot taken.

Good Men And True.

The members of the jury were Washington Crutcher, Jerry Tracy, Frank Bacon, A. B. Bacon, Marine Webster, R. H. Hawkins, J. L. Wilson, William Baker, A. M. Duvall, Robert Magruder, Samuel Cogswell and Samuel Lewis.

The jury is conceded to have been the best ever selected in Franklin county. Politically, nine are regular Democrats, two Republicans and one a Brown Democrat. Eight members of the jury are members of the Christian Church, three are members of the Baptist Church, and one is a Methodist.

The usual steps for delay will be taken. Tracy and Lewis, Democrats, hung the jury. The Republicans, both voted for death on the first ballot.

ELECTION BOARD.

New Commissioner Appointed and Members Qualify.

The State Election Board met Wednesday and appointed county boards for all counties having cities requiring registration Oct. 2. The commissioners for this county are Isaac Garrott, Chas. M. Meacham and C. A. Brasher. They qualified yesterday and officers for the city precincts will be appointed by Monday. At the meeting of the State Board, Morton K. Yonts resigned and his place on the Board will be filled by Judge Jas. Breathitt, of this county, if the law is not changed. In any event a Republican will be on the Board and Judge Breathitt will probably be the man. His appointment would prove satisfactory to men of all parties, especially in this county where he is best known.

TEDDY COMING

The Rough Rider Will Touch Hopkinsville on His Swing.

Gov. Roosevelt will make half a score or more speeches in Kentucky during next month, mostly however 20 and 30 minute efforts from train platforms. He will cross the state line at Henderson, and will speak at Madisonville, Central City, Greenville, Princeton, Paducah, Hopkinsville, Russellville, Bowling Green, Munfordsville, Elizabethtown, Shepherdsville; at Louisville a set speech, then to La Grange, Frankfort, Mt. Sterling, etc., going out of the state at Covington or Maysville, being in the state 36 to 48 hours and speaking at say twenty points on the circuit described.

Hon. John W. Kern, Democratic nominee for Governor of Indiana, has given Taylor to understand that he cannot be harbored in that State if he becomes Governor on Jan. 7. He declares that all fugitives from justice will be treated alike by him.

THE ELKS' FAIR.

Pronounced Success of the Carnival From the First.

Great Crowds Attracted To the City Each Day—The Floral Parade Yesterday.

The Elks Fair and Carnival opened Tuesday with a creditable street parade participated in by the fire department, police, military company, etc. The attendance at the park Tuesday was 1,800, considered good enough for the first day.

The principal free attractions are the Diving Elks that plunge from a high elevation into a pool of water; Senorita Cecilia, the Mexican trapeze performer, and M. Achille Phillon, the equilibrist who ascends a spiral incline standing on a ball, which he rolls up and down at will. The band also makes music at frequent intervals.

There are five or six pay shows in tents inside the park. These are the Midway, Tyler's Oriental Palace, Montgomery's Beauty Show, Southern Minstrels, Havana by Gaslight, Hagenback, Jr., menagerie, etc.

A number of fakirs were on hand the first day and set up games of chance that were not all permitted to run. Some were so near gambling schemes that the authorities suppressed them after one day.

There are a number of booth displays and refreshment stands. The handsomest and most elaborate of the booths is that of Sam Frankel. Forbes & Bro. have the most extensive display of goods. The attendance Wednesday was again very gratifying to the management.

The Floral Parade.

The great floral parade yesterday morning was the feature of the fair. It was a mile long and the scores of vehicles were decorated in paper flowers of every conceivable color. Consummate taste was displayed and rivalry for the prizes was very spirited.

The military escort, a detachment from Company D. on horseback, announced the coming of the Queen of the Carnival, in the Royal Float, surrounded by a dozen maids of honor.

Miss Bessie Russell, the Queen, was seated upon a throne on the rear end of the float and the maids were attired in white dresses and the aggregation of loveliness called forth cheers of admiration along the line of spectators.

Among the many beautiful vehicles following the Royal float, the following are deserving of special mention:

Miss Kate Bachman's, red and green.
Miss Mary Jones's, pure white.
J. M. Renshaw's golden rod.
Miss Mary Ware's, pink.
Sam Frankel's, pink.
J. E. Cooper's, blue.
M. H. Tandy's, purple.
F. Zimmer's, purple and white.
J. T. Edmund's, red and yellow.

There were a large number of advertising floats and vehicles, several carriages and nearly fifty bicycles in the parade.

The awarding committee decided that the Sam Frankel's vehicle was entitled to first prize, M. H. Tandy's second and Miss Kate Bachman's third.

The crowd in the city was estimated at not less than 10,000. The crowd at the Park was large enough to fill the inclosure until even standing room was at a premium.

The shows inside all did a rushing business.

The day was in many respects the most successful of the week.

At night the great fireworks display came off, but we went to press in advance of this event.

To-day and to-morrow are expected to be the greatest days and even larger crowds are looked for. People are in the city from all surrounding counties.

Anti-Caucus Democrats Accept The Decision of a Conference.

New Election Bill Agreed Upon And Will Pass At Once.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 26.—The Democrats of the House this morning reached an agreement on an election bill, and it will pass without a dissenting Democratic vote. The agreement was reached at a meeting of the house Special Committee on Suffrage and Elections, both sides being represented by their leading men.

The bill agreed upon provides that the State Board shall consist of one Democrat and one Republican and a State officer. They shall appoint the county boards, one or two from each party, and from lists submitted. They shall also appoint the umpire.

This will give the Democrats a majority on each county board, but the boards shall have only ministerial powers, except as to questioned ballots. It is said that the Democrats in the Senate will readily accept this compromise.
